

Folsom Area Democratic Club Bylaws

Article I

Purpose

Section 1. This organization shall be known as the Folsom Area Democratic Club, hereinafter referred to as "the Club."

Section 2. The purpose of the Club shall be to support Democratic candidates and ballot measures; support the philosophy and goals of the Democratic Party; educate Folsom area voters on national, state, and local issues; register voters, and encourage participation in the electoral process.

Article II

Membership

Section 1. Membership shall be open to registered Democrats and those persons who indicate their intention to register as a Democrat upon attaining eligibility to register to vote.

Members are entitled to a) receive notification of all meetings, public forums, or community events sponsored by the Club, b) vote annually for officers of the Club, c) vote to adopt, amend, or repeal the Bylaws of the Club, and d) serve as an elected or appointed officer of the Club, or as chair or member of any of its committees, or as its appointed representative to other organization(s).

Section 2. Categories of membership shall be a) individual, b) couple, c) student (through age 25), d) senior (over 65), senior couple (with one member age 65 or over) and e) special circumstances (to be determined individually in accordance with Standing Rules on Dues).

Section 3. Any member whose actions are judged by a majority of the Board to be prejudicial or detrimental to the Club may be expelled from the Club upon recommendation of the Board, and by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at a regularly scheduled meeting of the membership.

Article III

Dues

Section 1. Membership dues are payable when a person joins the Club and annually thereafter. Dues shall cover a calendar year, January 1 through December 31. Members joining on or after October 1 of any year shall have their annual dues applied through the succeeding year.

Section 2. Membership renewal is due and payable by January 1 and delinquent March 1. Changes in dues amounts shall henceforth be determined by the Board and submitted to Club membership for approval.

Section 3. Members who fail to pay applicable dues shall not be considered members in good standing and shall not be eligible to vote or serve in any capacity until such dues are paid in full or waived. A member may request that the Club Executive Board reduce or waive their dues if payment or dues would constitute an economic hardship.

Article IV Elections

Section 1. Only members of the Club in good standing since the prior business meeting shall have a vote concerning elections, endorsements, or any other activity of the Club.

Section 2. So that the Club may have an orderly transition to a new board in January of each even year, and because the Club traditionally does not meet in November and December except for social gatherings, the election process shall be as follows:

- A. At the August meeting, the president will appoint a three member nominating committee to seek volunteer candidates to run for the Board. Candidates will be sought for the positions of President, First Vice-President, Second Vice President, Treasurer, and Recording Secretary. The immediate past president of the club shall serve as a voting member on the FADC board of directors. If the immediate past president is not available, then the most recent past president shall serve. See Article V for definitions/ responsibilities of all Board positions.
- B. At the September meeting, the nominating committee will report its candidate list, and self-nominations may be taken from the floor. In case of multiple candidates contesting for the same position, nominating committee will conduct the further voting process.
- C. Between the September and October meetings, nominees may write an election statement to be sent in a collective special edition e-mail newsletter by the Communications Chair to all members of the Club. This newsletter shall be sent no later than ten (10) days in advance of the October election meeting.
- D. At the October meeting, voting will take place. See Article IX Section 3 for voting procedure to be followed. A simple majority of voting members present at the meeting will elect a candidate to any office.
- E. There will be no proxy ballots, but absentee ballots will be allowed. See article IX Section 4 for absentee ballot procedure.
- F. Winners of the election will be made known at the October meeting and announced in the following newsletter.
- G. Uncontested nominees will be automatically elected.
- H. In the event of a tie, balloting will continue until a winner is determined.
- I. Disputed results shall be handled by an immediate recount in the presence of both/all candidates.

Section 3. Term of Office: Officers shall serve a two-year term of office commencing January 1 of even years.

Article V Officers
